Confronted with innumerable tasks, the Maroon staff worked inordinately hard, resolved to maintain the high standard set by students preceding them. We leave the rest to your judgment. However, we are indebted to the advisers for their welcomed assistance: to Mr. Vaughn for his guiding hand and to Mrs. Partlan who has assumed the responsibility of producing this yearbook.

The position of Editor-in-Chief was filled by Rita Lockwood, who selected Alberta Loughran to assist her. Arlene Riber, our Organization Editor, more than capably accomplished her work; as did Jacqueline Mogan, Activities Editor; Elaine Navy, Calendar Editor; and William Goldberg and Rose Mautone, Boys' and Girls' Sports Editors respectively. The Personalia Staff, composed of Ann Cuff, June Zimmerman, Fannie DeCicco, Gertrude Beichert, Mary Card, Jeannette Macdonald, Gloria Edwards, Helen Edwards, Frank Modica and Jack Pope, who is now in active service, appropriately introduced a new system of personal comments. Roberta Vollmer, Hazel Vente, Ruth Jones and Edmund Weyhe, at present in the Armed Forces, are to be complimented for their individual artistic ability. Special mention goes to Earl Terwilliger who assisted us with various phases of the art work. Our Business Managers, Mary Qualtere and William Werner, succeeded in filling the quota of sales, attending to financial matters, and scheduling Maroon pictures. Finally, we give credit to our typists, Dorothy Tannenbaum, Ida Zanni, Richard Wagner, and our photographers, Donald Soper and Daniel Barnhart for their ever-ready assistance.

Dedication

"Music gives tone to the universe; wings to the wind; flight to the imagination; a charm to sadness; gayety and life to everything."—Plato.

With this tribute we dedicate the 1944 Maroon to our musical director, choir master and conductor, Mr. Leonard Stine.

ARTHUR J. LAIDLAW
Superintendent

To a Board of Education, composed of nine of her citizens, Kingston entrusts the privilege of directing her educational activities. These cover a wide field: from the newly-established kindergartens for the four-year olds; through the twelve grades which offer us preparation for many phases of living, utilitarian and cultural; to the evening courses for adults, in subjects ranging from art to agriculture. The members of this Board are appointed by the Mayor, to serve, without compensation, for a period of four years. Responsible to them and working in our interest is our Superintendent, Mr. Arthur J. Laidlaw. Although to many of us the faces of our Board members are unfamiliar, their names often unknown, we are aware and deeply appreciative of all their efforts in our behalf.

MRS. VIRGINIA L. NORWOOD
Girls' Adviser, K. H. S.

At the eve of our departure, we are thoughtful of those benefactors whose assistance we have employed to realize our aims through the high school year.

During the ninth grade in Myron J. Michael, the air of tension produced by new surroundings was relieved by the genuinely sincere attitude and kindly smile of Mr. Meagher. Those entering the halls of K. H. S. were immediately put at ease by Mrs. Norwood and Mr. Culver, while pupils associated with the Industrial Arts department received the wise attention of Mr. Hoderath. Special requests were granted by Mr. Dumm, who likewise supervised our activities, curricular and extra curricular.

To those who have so widened our horizon go our thanks and heartfelt recognition.

CLASS OF 1944

We, the Senior Class of 1944, having completed our days at Kingston High School, have come to the parting of the ways. We leave with only the fondest memories—and the satisfaction of a job well done.

Some of us already have answered the call of our country, perhaps destined to make the supreme sacrifice; the rest of us are fighting here with hands and heart.

We are especially proud of our Letters to Lucerne, proving our serious side and indebting us deeply to Miss Tarrant for her splendid direction.

Our basketball team added another championship certificate to K. H. S.'s illustrious walls. We are proud of the work of our student organization which, through the cooperation of both members and officers, has made a proud record of sportsmanship and good fellowship.

We extend our sincere thanks to Mr. Dumm, Mr. Culver, Mrs. Partlan, Miss Tarrant, Mrs. Norwood, Mr. Bailey and Mr. Vaughn for their helpful cooperation throughout the year.

CLASS OF 1945

As faithful understudies of the Senior Class, the Class of 1945 organized a troupe with a four-star cast of officers. The principal roles were assigned to Gerald Perry, Ruth Hutton, Angela McGowan and Brian Owens. The supporting cast consisted of 253 loyal and cooperative troupers. Backing productions were Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. DeWitt, Miss Barnett, and Mr. Pollock.

During the season numerous members of the technical staff, working behind the scenes, concentrated on engineering special bookings of the troupe. Having considered insignias an essential property, the entire troupe authorized a committee to select the type of ring, pin, key, and bracelet best adaptable to individual desires. Following the custom of players of other years, the troupe chose a banner designed by Fred Schryver. Under this standard the Class of '45 will continue to play throughout next year. The hit of the season was the festive spring dance with its patriotic theme, "A Victory Garden can be set in the midst of fun."

Despite depletion of ranks because of the war, the Class of '45 brings this season to a close with all box-office receipts balanced and the capable characters eager to resume their roles next year.

CLASS OF 1946

The present sophomore class, although not officially organized, plays a very important part in our school cycle. Many clubs are open to its members. Among them are Chess, Camera, Leaders', Math, So-Hi and various intermural organizations, such as the bowling and basketball teams, tennis tournaments and softball squads, which are enthusiastically sponsored by both boys and girls of the class. During the "treasury hunt," the sophomores did more than their share to aid and cooperate in all ways with the patriotic organizations in the school. High ranking in scholastic honors, the class's most prominent member, Wilma Bulivant, achieved the coveted place on the 95 per cent honor roll continuously throughout her two years in high school.

CLASS OF 1947

The class of 1947 has made its mark in various fields. Many members have been active in band, orchestra, and glee club. An outstanding basketball team won eleven out of twelve games. A program of three one-act plays, "The Wedding," "A Pair of Lunatics," and "Six Who Pass while the Lentils Boil," was presented by the dramatic group. Several parties and dances high-lighted the social season. The greater sale of stamps and bonds and more activity in the Junior Red Cross indicated our patriotism. The Company M Citizenship awards and the students' votes for "most popular" went to Gloria Tabacchi and Harry Barnhart.

For twelve years, DAME RUMOR, the bi-weekly newspaper of K. H. S., has informed the student body and faculty of school activities.

Formerly a brain child of Hi-Y, DAME RUMOR has leaped to a prominent place among high school publications. DAME RUMOR has captured an "All State Rating" at the Syracuse Press Conference and a Blue Ribbon first place at the Columbia Press Conference.

Corridor Corn, Inquiring Reporter, Letters to the Editor, Editorials and timely news articles made DAME RUMOR a "must" for every student.

With the money earned at the traditional Saint Patrick's Day Party, DAME RUMOR has insured our 200 service men of receiving copies of the paper.

The Junior and Senior Popularity Contests and the Annual Literary Contest proved successful.

Many thanks are due the managing and associate editors, the business and sport staffs and the unpraised reporters and photographers.

Special recognition must be given to Miss Agnes Scott Smith of K. H S., who has worked endlessly with this year's DAME RUMOR staff, and to Miss Ruth Flicker, who capably directed the section from M. J. M.

National Honor Society

Manning Chapter

The Manning Chapter of the National Honor Society has as its four principles: Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service.

Following tradition, Honor Society sponsored many activities in K. H. S. this year. Included were a quiz program between the students and teachers, an annual hot dog roast and picnic, the tapping of new members and the annual tea in honor of the new inductees.

One of the Manning Chapter's outstanding services was its Tutoring Organization. Given full co-operation by the faculty, many pupils have received much needed aid from members of the Society.

At an early meeting of the Honor Society this year, officers chosen for the first semester were: President, Lester Morton; Vice President, Dorothy Walter; Secretary, Hilda Brown; and Treasurer, Neumont Culver. Early in February, the elected officers for the second term were: President, Neumont Culver; Vice President, Dorothy Walter; Secretary, Jacquelyn Mogan; and Treasurer, George Snyder.

We wish to thank Miss Agnes Scott Smith, Miss Kuehn, Miss Hull, Mrs. McNelis, Mr. Bailey and Mr. Whiston for guiding the club through another eventful year.

J. Mogan, D. Walter
N. Culver, G. Snyder

Chi Alpha

Chi Alpha, with over 100 Protestant high school students, aims to promote fellowship among young people in high school, to encourage its members to participate in church activities, and to serve the community and nation.

Chi Alpha had talks, movies, and interesting programs at their meetings. Other activities included: several barn dances, devotional services, a variety show, and the Valentine Dance.

Officers were: President, Grant Rowland; Vice President, Betty Bickert; Secretary, Edith Rowland; and Treasurer, Herman Schwenk.

Rev. Johnson, Rev. Williams, Rev. Gulnick, and Rev. Oudemool were the club's advisers.

Newman Club

An organization composed of Catholic high school students with the purpose of better acquainting its members socially, the Newman Club of K. H. S. has in its midst over 350 members.

Meetings were held on the first and the third Tuesdays of every month. Usually, after the business meetings, dancing was enjoyed. The Reverend Benjamin C. Roth acted as Spiritual Moderator for the club.

The annual semi-formal Christmas Dance proved to be a financial and social success.

Early this year officers elected were: President, Robert Egan; Vice President, Mary Qualtere; Secretary, Gloria Jaffer; and Treasurer, William Nock.

Prisma

"The quality of mercy is not strained, it droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven."

Prisma, comprised of hundreds of junior and senior girls, is dedicated to charitable, social and school improvement activities. That is why Prisma is considered one of the most helpful organizations in Kingston High School.

Among many numerous activities this year was a successful magazine drive, under the guidance of Mrs. Norwood and Miss Case, which brought a substantial check to Junior Red Cross.

On Armistice Day, Prisma supervised the placement of large vases of flowers in the front corridor to commemorate the death of the K. H. S. boys in World War I.

Prisma

As usual, the front halls were trimmed by Prisma girls during the week before the Christmas vacation.

The new project of the Day Nursery was undertaken by Prisma this year. A joint committee of faculty and students formulated a plan with five divisions: play supervision, sewing, clothing collection, toy collection, and the collection of material for scrapbooks. Certainly the children have gained more than a small measure of happiness from these girls who gave up much of their time and effort. The Hospitality Committee, under Mrs. McNelis, worked efficiently, while the correspondence committee kept in touch with many K. H. S. boys in service. A girl-bid dance was held in April and in the spring, the traditional spelling bee was sponsored. The sale of war stamps was taken over by Prisma. In June, prizes were awarded to the freshman, the sophomore and the junior who attained the highest scholastic average of the year.

During the first few meetings of this year the following officers were elected: President, Isabel Gill; First Vice President, Mary Darling; Second Vice President, J. Watzka P. Scudder; Third Vice President, Angela McGowan; Recording Secretary, Joan Parslow; Corresponding Secretary, Anne Mac Connell. Miss Gladys Nickerson ably handled the affairs of finance.

The faculty advisers were Mrs. Norwood, Miss Nickerson, Miss Mullen, Mrs. Crook, Miss Kuehn, Mrs. McNelis and Miss Scheutz.

Hi-Y

"We few, we happy few, we band of brothers."

The Ellis T. Bookwater Chapter of Hi-Y has strived during this year "to create, maintain and establish, throughout the school and community, a high standard of Christian character." Their platform is "clean speech, clean scholarship, clean sports and clean living."

Hi-Y sponsored many dances after basketball games; attended the Albany and Goshen Conferences; planned the Hi-Y-Tri-Hi Conference; held the annual Hatchet Day Dance; sent delegates to the national Conference at Mt. Vernon; took over the city on May 2; and carried on the annual Senior Picnic.

Officers for this year were: President, Neumont Culver; Vice President, Ed Crough; Secretary, Jack Tandy; and Treasurer, Clyde Wonderly and Jim Matthews.

The advisers were Mr. Hatch, Mr. Bailey and Mr. Whiston.

Tri-Hi

"And laughing

fellowship glows warm."

Holding their meetings on Monday nights at the Y. W. C. A., Tri-Hi again completed a very eventful year. With the purpose of promoting Christian ideals in the community, Tri-Hi has launched its program of bringing out the best in every girl in the community.

Among the many activities of this year were: the Tri-Hi-Hi-Y Conference; co-ed meetings and parties with Hi-Y; the Leap Year Dance; Rummage Sale; the Industrial Home Christmas Party; Alumni Tea; Mother-Daughter Tea; and the annual May Day Breakfast.

Mrs. Herbert Fister has guided the club through the past year.

This year's officers were: President, Patricia Scudder; Vice President, Angela McGowan; Recording Secretary, Frances Lown; Corresponding Secretary, Rita Lockwood; and Treasurer, Ruth Jones.

"Speak the speech, I pray you."

The purpose of the M. J. M. Dramatic Club is to provide elementary training and experience in the field of dramatics, and to teach members to judge plays wisely.

Among their accomplishments this year was the presentation of three one act plays: "A Wedding," "A Pair of Lunatics," and "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil," on January 21.

Most of the credit for the attainments for this club is due Miss Ruth Flicker, of the M. J. M. faculty, for her untiring effort and advice.

The current year officers were: Pres., Francis Danahy; Vice Pres., Gloria Tabacchi; and Sec'y-Treas., Joan Jablonski.

Senior Dramatic Club

"The world is but a stage and its men and women merely players."

"To encourage drama and its counterparts, and to discover new dramatic talent and interest" is the purpose of the Senior Dramatic Club.

The activities for this year have included: numerous dramatic sketches at meetings; tryouts for new members; the annual Christmas play, "A Bed of Hay," an assembly program for the sale of War Bonds, and a theatre trip to New York.

Officers for the past year were: Pres., Alberta Loughran; Vice Pres., James Carroll; Sec'y, Dorothy Tannenbaum; and Treas., J. Warren Johnson.

Miss Tarrant, through her help and guidance has once again shown herself to be invaluable to the organization. Mrs. Kershaw, Miss Rice, and Miss Schmalkuche were the other faculty advisers.

Language Club

"They have been at a feast of languages and stolen the scraps."

Finishing the 3rd successful year as a united organization, Language Club has as its purpose to encourage the study of languages through interesting programs, shows and assemblies in order to help the United War Effort.

Activities included: Language Club presented for the second time a gala, festive bazaar, at which colorful souvenirs were sold. Refreshments, entertainment and fortune telling added greatly to the gaiety of the affair which brought another substantial check to the Junior American Red Cross.

Gloria Jaffer, John Gannon, Fannie De Cicco and George Snyder acted as President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer for the past year.

Faculty advisers were: Miss Fellows, Miss Keuhn, Miss Nickerson, Mr. Pollock, and Mr. Etienne.

"Here is a dear and true industrious friend."

Probably the largest organization of grammar and high school students in the United States is the Junior American Red Cross. The purpose of this group is to sustain the American Red Cross in the schools.

It is a national organization that brings students into contact with the workings of the American Red Cross. The Junior Red Cross supports the National Children's Fund, supplies hospital and recreational equipment for the Armed Forces, and cooperates in local, national and inter-national projects.

The Junior Red Cross also sponsored many courses that were open to all students. Among these courses were: First Aid, Life Saving, Nutrition, Home Nursing, Swimming and Canteen. There were large groups that were interested in these courses this year. Much of the work was accomplished through the efforts of the faculty committee comprised of Mrs. Wylie, Miss Gordon, Mrs. Hayes, Miss C. Smith, Mr. Mack, Miss Schmalkuche and Mr. Service. Special recognition must be given to Mrs. Wylie for her untiring effort in both local and county chapters and to Miss Gordon for her work in school affairs.

Officers for the past year were Lester Morton, President; Raymond Howe, Vice-President; Gloria Mayone, Secretary; and John Gannon, Treasurer. Hats off to the Junior Red Cross for a year of successful work!

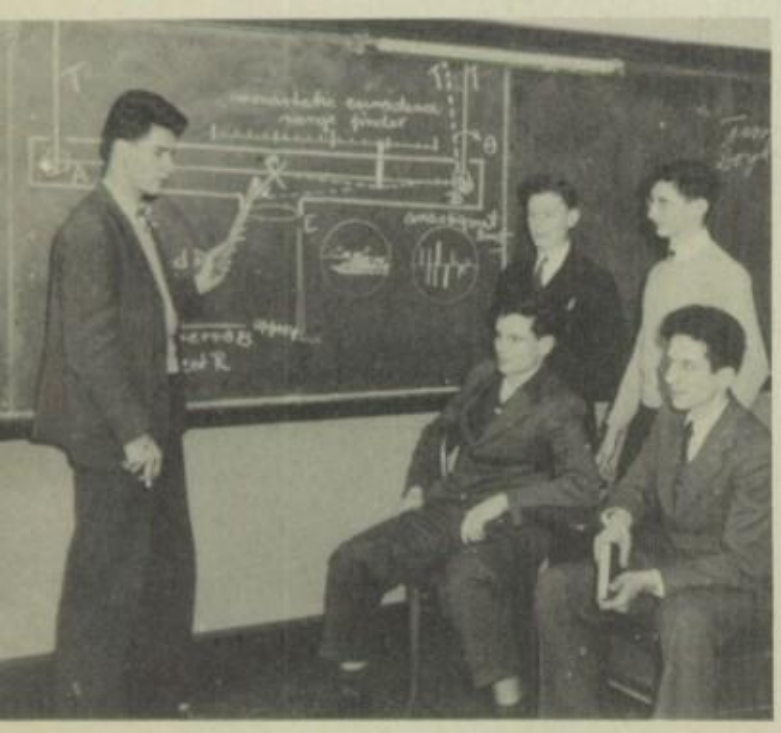
Einstein Math Society

"Let knowledge grow from more to more."



D. Fletcher, Rowens, D. Sweeney, A. Savatgy, R. Rosenthal

Ring the bells, sound the horns, bow low and make way for the Einstein Math Society. (Eins, to you!) It's new, different, and purely original.

Being a senior organization, the Einstein Math Society was the first of its kind to be formed in the annals of K. H. S.

The requirement of the club was that each member must have a knowledge of at least two and a half years of math. and plan a comprehensive study of three years of math. The purpose was to acquaint members with the enjoyable side of math.

At the first meeting, this spring, Aris Savatgy was appointed general chairman until an election could be held. As a result of the election, the following officers were chosen: President, Aris Savatgy; Vice President, Bill Goldberg; Secretary-Treasurer, Virginia Dowd.

The faculty advisers were: Miss Case, Mr. Vaughn and Mr. Fuller.

We wish the newly formed Einstein Math Society the best of luck, for a bright, eventful and successful future.

Newton Science Club

"While bright-eyed science watches round."

Composed of students interested in the betterment and advancement of science, the Newton Science Club has as its purpose the promotion and continuation of interest in science.

The club has devoted most of the year to lectures and demonstrations by various members of the club interested in scientific activities. The members also planned visits to the City Laboratory, the Kingston Foundry and a visit to the Mushroom caves. Entertainment was also planned to raise money for the Junior American Red Cross.

Early in the fall, the club held its elections and the following officers were selected for the past year: President, Bill Werner; Vice President, Virginia Dowd; Secretary, Jackie Mogan; and Treasurer, Tom Reynolds. Since Tom Reynolds left school, a special election was held and Vincent Fadoul was elected to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Whiston acted as the faculty advisers.

"Thus shadow owes its birth to light."

Concluding another successful year, Camera Club has again stimulated a greater interest in photography among the students of K. H. S. and furthered their knowledge of photography.

As a result of planning, a dance was held after school, Dec. 16, to raise the money for a photographic album and equipment which was used throughout the year to photograph visiting service men.

Officers for the year were Donald Soper, Elmore Yallum, Shirley Parnett, and Robert Lipgar as President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer.

Miss Schmalkuche and Miss Bestle acted as faculty advisers.

Chess Club

"Liberty of thought is the life of the soul."

Founded in February, 1933, the Chess Club has tried to encourage the game of chess for pleasure, entertainment and instruction. In the past few years, there has been a definite trend toward interscholastic matches.

Since many members are considered experienced in the game, Chess Club has pitted its wits against Saugerties and West Point. Matches were also played against Catskill, Saugerties and West Point this spring.

Officers for the year were: Brian Owens, President; Arthur Buck, Vice President; Joan Gakenheimer, Secretary and Treasurer.

R. H. D. Boecker was the faculty adviser.

Leadership calm and constructive counsel."

A. A. Council is composed of managers and captains of every boys' varsity sport, eight girls appointed by the girls' Physical Director, the Intramural manager, the Letter Club president and the head Cheerleaders.

Its goal is to develop the athletic program in the school and to maintain high standards and good sportsmanship throughout the school.

Sponsoring an A. A. Drive, pep rallies and meetings, the A. A. Party, and the awarding of letters to boys who qualify as varsity members, A. A. completed an honorable year.

The officers were: Bob Moser, Mary Darling, Jackie Mogan, and Jack Doyle.

Considered among the important organizations of K. H. S., the Band Music Council has again functioned actively this year.

Among many numerous activities the presentation of the Annual Band Concert was considered by the Council as most important. All committees in charge of the Concert were selected from the Council. All decorations and publicity for Band activities were handled by the Council.

Working under the guidance of Mr. Messina, the Council has made contributions to the Red Cross and will award prizes to band members at Commencement for their growth in musical ability and service.

Leaders' Club

"Daughters of the Game."

Under the leadership of Miss Camille Brown, Leaders' Club has strived to develop character, grace and leadership among the girls of K. H. S. With this background, they were able to assist Miss Brown in the physical education classes. The girls were chosen to set examples for other girls to follow. This was done by stressing courtesy, good sportsmanship, cooperation and good posture.

This year the girls acted as squad leaders in all gym classes and assisted in all physical education activities. A Play Day was held on April Fools' Day at the Y. M. C. A. with fifty girls of the Leaders' Club and ten girls from each of the following schools: Highland, New Paltz, and Saugerties, participating. They also presented a demonstration on May Day.

The officers for the past year were: President, Betty Salzmann; Vice President, Jacqueline Mogan; Secretary, Gloria Molyneaux and Treasurer, Joyce Kirchner.

Letter Club

"What you do, still betters what is done."

The members of Letter Club consists of boys who have earned their "K" in interscholastic competition.

The chief aim of the Letter Club was to bolster the attitude and spirit of the students toward the school.

The 38 members of the club acted as ushers, field ushers on May Day, controlled crowds at high school games, assisted at the A. A. Party and this year have collected scrap paper in the home rooms.

In September, the first meeting was held and the following officers were elected for 1943-44: President, J. Shattan; Vice President, D. Rice; Secretary and Treasurer, L. Morton.

Faculty advisers were: Mr. Kias, Mr. Fuller, Mr. Bailey and Mr. Woodard.

Again, as in the past, the Cheerleaders have urged teams on to victory, by promoting school spirit, cheering, and arousing pep among the students of K. H. S. in assemblies before games.

This year the cheerleaders worked harder than ever. They attended practically all games, urging the teams on to victory. Also, the Cheerleaders sponsored many assemblies for boys leaving for service, and helped conduct a Pep Rally and Dance before the Newburgh football game.

This year's K. H. S. captain was Ruth Jones; co-captain was Dorothy Walter. Miss Schmalkuche and Miss Rice acted as faculty advisers in K. H. S. and Miss Ward in M. J. M.

Marshals

"A policeman's lot is not a happy one."

Our marshal system was formed about seven years ago. The purpose of this system is to regulate traffic in the corridors by placing marshals at various points.

They kept lunch rooms clear, took candy cases back and forth, cleared the stairways before bells and did many odd jobs around the school.

At the head of the upstairs marshals, which included Robert Keyes, Walter Burr, Jack Roosa, Arthur Hansen, Mervin De Graff, Ray Winnie, Allen Scriber, Roger Grazier, Richard Lapo, Edward Berinato, Ernest Hopper, and Lester Frost, were Robert Adsit and Calvin Smith.

On the main floor, head positions were filled by Robert Carlzon, and Robert Mathews. The marshals were Rudolph Elling, Brian Owens, Joseph Farrell, George Sackett, Robert Kolts, Robert Hines, Leonard Korth, Arthur Brown, William Beehler, Richard Reynolds, Donald Soper, Louis Di Donna, Robert Doyle and William West.

Mr. Etienne headed the list of faculty advisers for the past year.

Together with over 300 other high school groups in the state, the Future Farmers of K. H. S. have united this year to form another link in the ever-widening chain of National Agricultural Organizations.

Every K. H. S. boy who is taking agriculture belongs to the organization. When an urgent call was issued for volunteers to help harvest crops this fall, the club went out and helped.

Several members attended an annual conference at Morrisville on May 5 and 6. The club adviser is Mr. Klein.

Officers for the year were Carl Parand, Dan McCullen and Frank Osterhout.

War Bonds and Stamps

D. Spodick

An important part of the war effort, The K. H. S. War Savings Campaign was organized to encourage the sale of War Bonds and Stamps in K. H. S. The chairman was David Spodick and the treasurer, June Zimmerman. The organization, through campaigns, raised large amounts of money through the sale of stamps and bonds. Banner awards were distributed to the winning rooms. Several appeals for the sale of bonds and stamps were made and were oversubscribed. From the money gained by these successful drives, K. H. S. purchased several jeeps, gliders, bayonets and grenades for the armed forces.

Miss Quimby and Miss Bestle acted as advisers.

Announcers

"Speak from thy folded papers."

Probably the hardest working group in K. H. S. are the announcers. They walk, run, and skip to the office several times a day to bring the news to the ears of the students.

Announcements pertaining to all students and teachers from the office are related by the energetic voices of the announcers.

They are K. H. S. human public address system—the small sparks that make a large wheel go round.

The most important announcements are given out in the morning before school, with others following after the lunch hour and at the close of the seventh period. Extremely urgent announcements are sent out during the school periods.

It is through the untiring efforts of Mr. Dumm that this group functions freely.

FOOTBALL

This season Kingston hopefully awaited the development of last year's "experimental team." Coach Conwicke, aided by the popular new Coach Hatch, and Coach Kias placed a heavier, faster and far more powerful squad on the gridiron. Variety was added in that K. H. S.'s 1943 team had no permanent captain.

The Kingston fans went wild when the Maroon and Whiters trampled Oneonta in an arc-light contest. When the Maroon invaded Oneonta and repeated the treatment, the stay-at-home quarterbacks went so far as to predict a Duso championship.

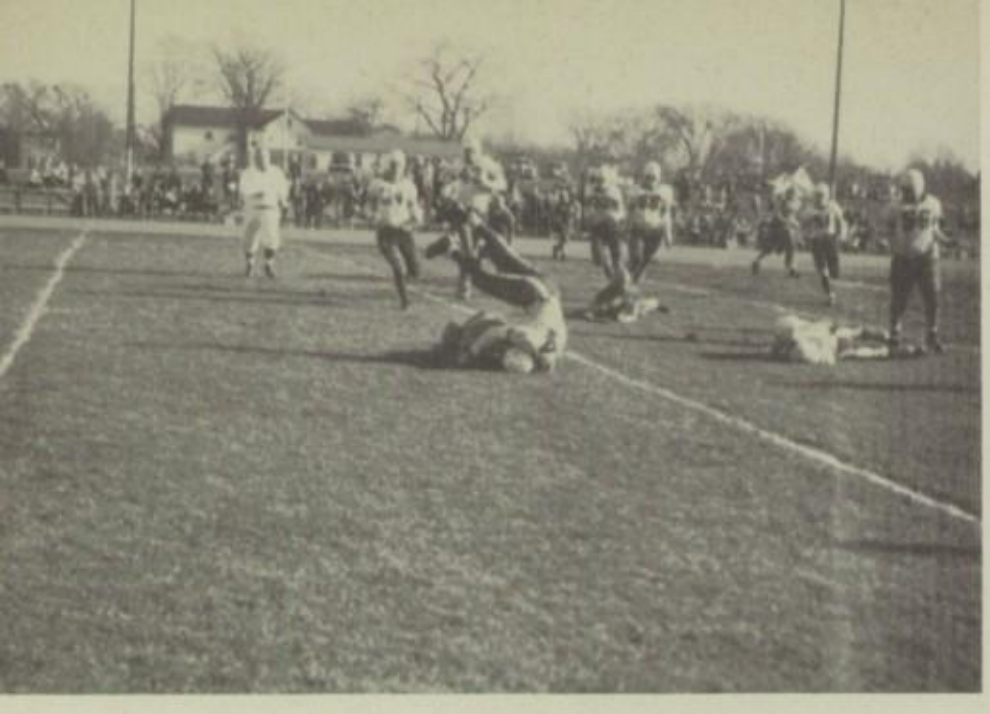
However, we all were jolted by four straight defeats by Mont Pleasant, Port Jervis, Poughkeepsie, and Middletown.

From a well-balanced team were plucked Armstrong, Cerasaro, Shattan, Crough, Lockwood and Rafferty for position on practically everyone's "dream team."

Kingston, though the underdog, came thundering back to take a nip and tuck battle with Highland. "Teddy" and his boys were now ready for the all important Newburgh game.

One of the greatest stadium crowds turned out to see a more experienced Goldback eleven score time and again, putting the coup de grace on another promising season.

Although the Conwickemen didn't have a very successful season, our boys played heads up ball all the way. So remember, "It isn't the score that counts but the way you play the game."



The object is—to recover the football!

BASKETBALL

Chills and thrills teamed up to make this year's season most memorable. This squad added the Desmond Trophy "for keeps" to the trophy case by winning the DUSO championship.

Our quintet operated with an uncanny coordination that often resembled 5 way mind-reading. This may be traced not only to superb talent but also to our basketeers' vast experience.

Kingston's only genuine attack of "nerves" came two weeks before the all-important Monticello game, when "Rod" Sagendorf and "Pappy" Sickler joined the Navy and Les Morton entered the Army. Happily our subs played a magnificent game to nail down the DUSO championship.

Captain Zelie, Sagendorf, Morton, Sickler and Shattan comprised the first team that spear-headed our attack. This year was a year of records: team total, 841; individual high scorer for single game, 31 points for Sagendorf; 17 victories for an undefeated season; and the 12th DUSO championship for Coach Kias in 17 years at K. H. S.

To the three who have already left for our country's service plus all those who combined to make this a great season, the student body sends its best wishes for future success.

TRACK

Of all K. H. S. teams, fewer letter men returned to the track squad than to any other. Therefore, the track team was primarily made up of "rookies."

Some of returning veterans were Culver (mile), Rizzi (440 and Javelin), Rafferty (220 hurdles, 220 and relay), Stahl (half mile and broad jump), and Zekeral and Kunst (both weight men).

Our first meet was held at Newburgh, where our squad received a 82½ to 30½ drubbing. Here all our points were emassed by the above mentioned veterans, with the exception of a 2nd place in the 100 yard dash for Kenny Whispell. But we must remember that Newburgh was probably the most powerful team that Kingston met this season.

The squad, which was somewhat hampered by cold and wet weather, was now getting into shape. The coaching job was done this year by Coach Kias, who was aided by Coach Conwicke.

Kingston, this year, probably won't have as powerful a team as last year's, but time will tell. Our field events may be our Achilles' heel, but our runners will probably take many firsts at this year's DUSO meet.

BASEBALL

This year's baseball team, although losing two of its first four games, gave every indication of DUSO material. The majority of this season's members were veterans, with the notable exception of "rookie" Coach Hatch.

In our first game with N. Y. M. A., we found ourselves on the slim side of a 4-2 score. Watzka was charged with the defeat. The Kingston runs were accounted for by Vertetis' two hits, Shattan's triple, Schoonmaker's two hits, and Lockwood's sacrifice.

Our first Stadium game ended in a sweeping Kingston victory over Middletown. Watzka won his first game by holding the Middies to two runs, while his team pounded ten runs across the plate.

We next journeyed to Poughkeepsie where the fans were treated to a beautiful pitchers' duel. Campbell went the route for the Maroon, allowing only six hits while Sherman held Kingston to five hits. The game was finally decided by unearned runs with Poughkeepsie winning 2-1.

At the Stadium, on May Day, K. H. S. came back in smashing style to trounce Port Jervis. Watzka pitched a shutout for his second win, while Kingston went mad and scored eighteen runs.

The lineup consisted of: Pitchers, Watzka and Campbell; Catcher, Salvucci, with Glaser or Scholar for relief; 1st base, Vogt, with Riehl subbing; 2nd base, Vertetis, with Glaser subbing; s.s., Koch, with Lockwood subbing; 3rd base, Captain Joe Shattan, with Murray subbing; l.f., Schryver; c.f. Schoonmaker; r.f., Forte; utility outfielders, Rua, Messerlie, and Miller.

This year Kingston had a veteran tennis team to represent us. All of its members were on the squad either last year or the year before.

Our team got off to a slow start due to little practice and bad weather. In their first meet at N. Y. M. A. they were beaten with no Kingston man winning his match.

However, with a little more practice the Culvermen came back to take Newburgh in easy style.

Koch lost 5-6, 2-6 but from then on in it was a clean sweep: Vertetis 6-4, 3-6, 6-3; Culver 2-6, 6-2, 6-3; Koch and Culver, 6-1, 6-4; Vertetis and DeGraff, 7-4, 6-4. Lown had hurt his hand before the Newburgh meet and was therefore unable to play. The play seemed slightly spotty but was plenty O-Keh to win and will undoubtedly improve as the season progresses.

This year's team, captained by Neut Culver and coached by Mr. Culver, appears to be well balanced and steady.

It looks as though the Kingston netmen should have one of their best seasons this year. We hope that when we look at the record book we were right.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Imagine Joe Lewis, after intensively training for several weeks, suddenly finding himself with no one to fight! Such was the case with this year's cross-country squad—a dearth of competition.

This year's team was under the direction of Coach Kias after Mr. Connick's induction into the Army. Since many high schools had discontinued their cross-country teams, (because of the war) it was with considerable difficulty that Coach Kias managed to obtain three meets.

Culver and Moser were the only lettermen returning from last year's DUSO squad. This year's lettermen consisted of Culver, Moser, Stahl, a brilliant newcomer, Lodge, Elling and Cating. The fine showing made by the members of this year's squad who didn't receive letters bodes well for future Kingston teams.

For the first time in years K. H. S., captained by Moser, defeated Mont Pleasant 27-28 (low score wins).

The Maroon traveled to West Point to meet the Plebe harriers, who were both numerous and speedy. Kingston surprised many by holding the score to 30-25.

Our last meet was the Hudson Valley Invitation Meet held at Poughkeepsie. In this hotly contested road-run Kingston succeeded in nosing out 6 teams to cop second place, yielding only to Knott Terrace High.

K.H.S.

The girls' basketball season was unusually short this year. Championships were determined this year by the round robin method. Gloria Molyneaux's team triumphed in the senior division. They walloped Doris Bator's five, 14-4, and thus became "champs." Evelyn Murtha proved to be the girl with the "sharpshooter's eyes" on this winning quintet. These girls "towered above" all opposition. The junior loop was dominated by Pearl Krom. Her team emerged with an unmarred season when they beat Betty Ostrander's "fighting five," 18-12. Betty's team, however, put up a good fight and with their captain's persistency, nearly won in the closing minutes of the game. Pearl's team also defeated Rose DeGasperis' team 14-9. One of the best games of the season was in the sophomore group. Blanche Glass' team was pitted against Betty Hornbeck's. The former team was favored, but the "dark horse" came through with a 12-10 upset. The freshmen team played just one game.

M.J.M.

The "basketeers" from the Michael School will present some sharpshooters to K. H. S. in the near future. The "Yanks," 9th year champions, really routed all opposition. Appearing in five games, this quintet won every game. The "Yanks" were fortunate in having Frances Zelickman on their team. Frances scored 64 points in league opposition. She also had the honor of scoring the most points in one game—26. Marilyn Speisman, on the 2nd place "Murdering Moron" team, had an individual score of 24 points for one game and scored 41 points in five games. As the season came to a close, the "Yanks" and the "Murdering Morons" were tied for 1st place. As was expected, with the two sharpshooters, Zelickman and Speisman, on the "Yanks" and "Morons" respectively, this was one of the best games of the season. The "Yanks" pulled off to an early lead, and when half-time rolled around, the "Yanks" led 12-4. When the last period was over, the "Yanks" were victorious by a 16-8 score.

Opening Night

The people began to take their seats, the strains of music filled the auditorium, the actors and actresses administered the last touches backstage. These preliminary actions occupied the moments before the class of '44 presented its senior play, "Letters to Lucerne," written by Fritz Rotter and Allen Vincent. As the voices and music subsided, the curtain parted, revealing a realistic and artistic setting. The year's outstanding performance had begun.

An American girls' school in Lucerne, Switzerland, provides the setting for this three-act comedy. The plot involves a struggle among girls of different nationalities, who before the war were inseparable.

All the parts were well done, showing how diligently the cast had worked. Ann Cuff really lived the part of Erna Schmidt, the German girl, while the part of Hans, her brother, was well taken by Robert Hines. Olga Kirinski, the Polish girl in love with Hans, was admirably portrayed by Grace Jones. The difficult roles of Mrs. Hunter, head mistress, and her assistant Gretchen Linder, called for maturity and sympathy. These parts were taken by Gloria Jaffer and Alberta Loughran, respectively. Both girls gave excellent, convincing performances in trying to bring harmony to the school. The roles of the students of other nationalities who influenced Erna's life tremendously were all acted with skill and finesse. Ginny Dowd and Dottie Walters creditably portrayed the enthusiasm and spontaneity of the two American girls, and Hilda Brown capably took the part of Marion Curwood, the reserved English girl. Jackie Mogan, as Felice Renoir, the French girl, supplied the inciting force to expose Erna.

Supporting characters were Burton Tucker as Gustave, and Dorothy Tannenbaum as Margarethe, both of whom inserted life and humor into their parts. Other players who merit commendation were Don Soper in the role of a Swiss policeman and Bill Goldberg as the postman, Francois.

Though a comedy, this play brought tears to the eyes of many during various dramatic scenes. The emotional appeal of the play, the unusually responsive audience, and the favorable criticisms, all denote that "Letters to Lucerne" was well deserving of acclaim.

Although the story and the cast were of the first quality, the play owes its real success to Miss Madeleine Tarrant, dramatic coach. Miss Tarrant's reputation for presenting the best plays, regardless of the effort required, was certainly evident in the production of "Letters to Lucerne." Three cheers for Miss Tarrant!

Property managers, Jimmie Carroll, and Amylou Millonig; prompters, Mary Card, Arlene Riber and Frank Modica; business manager, Neumont Culver; publicity manager, Dorothy Nickel; make-up director, Mrs. Kershaw; stage managers, Eddie Crough, Tom Gorham, Bob Kolts; and the art department headed by Miss Schmalkuche;—all these workers displayed great ability and initiative in their difficult tasks.

As we, the class of '44 leave, we extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to all who contributed toward making "Letters to Lucerne" such an outstanding success.

Christmas Play

DRAMATIS PERSONAE:

A fine cast of senior dramatists effectively portrayed "A Bed of Hay" as this year's Christmas Play. Written in blank verse by Agnes Amelia Robinson, the play concerns a lame stable boy who yielded his manger in the stable to Mary and Joseph. As a reward for his kindness, the stable boy's leg is made firm by the Angel of the Lord.

George Snyder did remarkably well as the stable boy. Burton Tucker, the inn keeper, and Jim Matthews, as Joseph, gave excellent performances. Creditable interpretations were given by Gloria Jaffer, as the Angel of the Lord, Anne MacConnell, as Mary, Vincent Fadoul, Warren Johnson, John Gannon and Frank Modica, as shepherds.

The success of this play is principally the result of Miss Tarrant's expert directing and coaching. The Senior Dramatic Club is also indebted to Mr. Stine and his choral group, to Miss Schmalkuche and the art department, and to Mrs. Kershaw for their skillful assistance.

EPISODES

Athletics, principally basketball, was the dominant feature of the assembly on March seventeenth. The members of one of the best teams ever to represent K. H. S. received their letters. Michael Forte, in behalf of the team, presented to Coach Kias the basketball used in the Middletown game, the final game of a victorious season. After presenting the DUSO Championship certificate and the Desmond trophy to Mr. Dumm, Superintendent Laidlaw delivered an inspiring message to the student body.

On March tenth the students of K. H. S. made a trip to Alaska and Greenland by proxy. Mr. Harold Eide, a man well-traveled in the Arctic gave a most enjoyable travel talk on this section of the world. His experiences, when marooned on Greenland for over six months with only two companions, added humor, excitement and pathos to Mr. Eide's talk.

Dr. J. Goodner Gill of Ryder College addressed our assemblies on February twenty-fifth. A forceful speaker, Dr. Gill spoke with clarity and simplicity. His speech on patriotism and the bountiful advantages and opportunities our forefathers handed down to us proved interesting to all the students.

Our War Bond Committee put on another effective assembly on March third. Mock short wave broadcasts from Tokyo, Berlin and America amazed the listeners. Effective speeches were made by James Carroll and David Spodick to promote the sale of bonds and stamps in K. H. S.

Pianist and composer Carmello Cascio played for the student body on April twentieth. Although he is handicapped by blindness, his music thrilled the entire audience. His selections were Mendelssohn's "Agitation," Edvard Grieg's "Wedding Day," Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in G Minor" and two original compositions. In response to the prolonged applause, Mr. Cascio played as an encore "Liebestraum" by Liszt.

In a recent spring assembly a selected group from the A Capella choir sang several well-known favorites. Patricia Scudder, accompanied by Amy Lou Millonig, played two violin solos, after which Ray Howe, baritone, sang two selections. The student body proved to be a very appreciative audience.

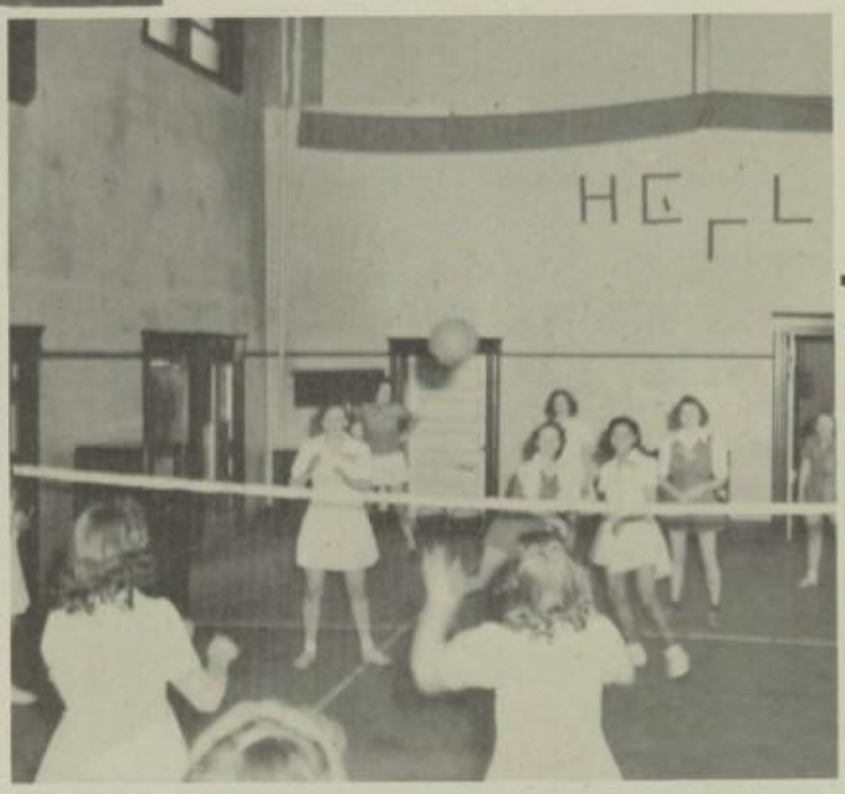
SENIOR PROM

Even though we lost the Turkey game, many irls and boys came to the Senior prom with miles and styles. In the M. J. M. gym, many nthusiastic couples danced through the color- ul rose arbor to the music of Jimmy Sweeney's rchestra. This was an outstanding event in he memory of all seniors.



PLAY DAY

April Fool's Day is a day for fun and merri- ment. Leaders' Club proved this fact at thei April Fool Play Day held in the Y. M. C. A. The members of this organization shared their en- joyment with girls from Highland, Saugerties and New Paltz. The day's schedule included basketball, swimming, badminton, bowling games and eats! Many fatigued but smiling damsels trudged wearily homeward at the close of the day.

HI-Y HATCHET DANCE

To insure themselves a date for Tri-Hi's Leap Year Dance the boys took their favorites to Hi- Y's Hatchet Dance in February. George Wash- ington silhouettes and hatchets throughout the Y. M. gym provided effective decorations. The music of the New Yorkers supplied timely dance tunes.

MALINY SHOW

Professor Don Marco Maliny, the man with a sixth sense, held his audience spellbound wit tricks of magic and skill. Brought here on No vember nineteenth and sponsored by Homecon Professor Maliny actually "pulled objects ou of the air." His most clever stunt was that o taking coins from Principal Dumm's hair. A who saw this amazing show will long remembe Don Marco Maliny.

HOMECON HILARITY SHOW

Homecon's third annual Hil- arity Show was presented on March third in our school audi- torium. There was a variety of entertainment including sing- ing, comedy acts and acrobatics. Outstanding performers were: Ann Eisele, Ray Howe, Lou Shaeffer and his acrobats, and Charles Marable. The New Yorkers provided the music for the show and the dancing that followed.

A. A. PARTY

The annual A. A. Party was staged on the last day of March in the M. J. M. gym. The entertainment consisted of top notch performances by Joe O'Rourke, and Charlie Marable, and songs by Ann Eisele, Jimmie McCabe and Ray Howe. Dancing followed to the music of the ever popular New Yorkers.

TRI-HI LEAP YEAR DANCE

Every girl proudly escorted her best beau to e gay Tri-Hi Leap Year Dance on February enty-fifth. The Y. W. gym, decorated with ue stars and streamers and flooded with soft hts, was converted into an ideal dance floor. e mood was entrancing; the music was divine; was a perfect evening.

DAME RUMOR SHOW

On March seventeenth, all K. H. S. realized that D. R. S. P. S. meant Dame Rumor St. Patrick Show. Dancing by Ginny Dowd and Johnnie Gannon, and piano duets by Gloria Sottile and Louise Jablonski were the novelty features of the show. Surprises, singing, dancing and the music of the New Yorkers delighted all in the audience.

PRISMA DANCE

Prisma, for the delight of all male students, d a girl-bid dance on April twenty-first in M. J. M. gym. A gay, confetti-filled um-lla, decorated with pink, green, and yellow pe paper, served as hub for colorful streamers t extended to the walls. In this attractive t the couples danced until midnight to the ightly music of the New Yorkers.

JUNIOR PROM

The class of '45 proved their social talents when they held their Prom on April twenty-eighth. In the gayly decorated M. J. M. gym many carefree couples danced to the tunes of Jimmy Sweeney's orchestra. If the success of this affair can be used as a yard stick, this class will certainly measure up to its predecessors.
